

Johnson City Public Library

Celebrating 110 Years

1895 - 2005

We value your opinions.

Tell us:

- What we do best
- What we need to do better

Johnson City Public Library

100 West Millard Street
Johnson City, TN 37604
423-434-4450
Fax 423-434-4469
www.jcpl.net

Library Board of Directors 2004-2005

Wendell Messimer, President
awmessimer@earthlink.net

Judith B. Slagle, Vice President slagle@etsu.edu

Duke Hall, Assistant Treasurer
dhall7934@charter.net

Donna L. McCalman
mdmccalman@yahoo.com

John G.W. Goah
wssc@earthlink.net

The mission of the Johnson City Public Library is to serve as a resource center to provide a wide range of both print and non-print materials and related services that support the informational, educational, cultural, and recreational needs of Johnson City and Washington County. The library will provide open, non-judgmental access to ideas and information for all residents.

To help us accomplish this goal, we would appreciate your comments.

Date ___/___/___

1. Why did you visit the library today? (Check all that apply)

borrow materials library program homework information voter registration business/job help recreational reading copy machine internet/computer other _____

2. If you needed materials and /or information, did we have what you wanted?
 yes no partially

3. Was the staff efficient & helpful? yes no didn't need help

4. Tell us...What do we do best? What can we do better?

Do you wish to be contacted regarding your comments? yes no

Name _____ Phone _____

Address _____ City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Email Address _____

Thank you for sharing your comments with us! Return form to the comment box at the Circulation Desk.