

Ways to Participate (6-12 year old)

1. Read and track your time online

You may register to read in the Summer Reading Club by going to www.jcpl.net beginning May 1.

When you register decide how many minutes you want to read. Jot down the minutes each time you read and enter the minutes online when it's convenient.

Receive a book and a certificate when you meet your goal.

2. Play "Build a Better World"

Pick up a game card at the library. Do the activities and stop by the library to let us know what you've completed. We'll give away a different prize per week. Your name will be entered into a drawing for a grand prize when the card is complete.

3. Attend programs

Check out the rest of the brochure to see what programs you'd like to attend. While you are in the library add a link to the kindness chain by writing down a time you did something nice for someone else.

Ways to Participate

(5 years old and younger)

1. Read to your child and tally how many books you read

You may register your child at the Youth Services desk any time between June 1 - July 20. Decide how many books you will read to your child. We will give you a calendar to tally how many books you read each day. Stop by the library any time and transfer your numbers to our copy of the calendar. We will give your child a sticker for each book to decorate his/her library poster.

Your child will receive a book and a certificate when the goal is met.

2. Play "Build a Better World"

Pick up a game card at the library. Do the family activities and stop by the library to let us know what you've completed. We'll give away a different prize per week. Your name will be entered into a drawing for a grand prize when the card is complete.

3. Attend programs

Check out the rest of the brochure to see what programs you'd like to attend. While you are in the library add a link to our kindness chain by writing down a time someone did something nice for you.
